Short description:

The work package 5 (social engagement dimension) within project IF4TM includes activity 5.2 in which 6 creativity centers were established. Every creative center is organizing events like trainings, workshops, meetings, idea development support etc. BMU's Creative center carried out following activity.

Representatives of the IT company Badin Soft from Niš - certified Scrum Masters Milica Arsić, Milica Mitić and Jelena Ivanov held a lecture "Experience & Challenges in Practical Application of Agile Methodologies & Scrum". After introducing the goal, principles and application of agile knowledge management methods and Scrum, the concept of the business process organized in short recurring cycles to achieve Total Product Customization to Market Requirements was explained. Tasks of each of the Scrum roles in the development team (Product Owner, Scrum Master and developers) were also presented. Furthermore, students gained insight into the practical experience and challenges that the company Badin Soft was encountering in agile methodologies and Scrum application in the development team, in order to efficiently manage, communicate and operate the team in complex and uncertain business conditions. Students were then presented with the Scrum Master certification process and available education for continuous improvement in this field. Finally, students participated in a very interesting Team Rope & Balloon Game. The lecture covered the following topics:

- Agile Knowledge Management Methods & Scrum - goal, principles and application
- Total Product Customization to Market Requirements - business process in short recurring cycles
- Scrum Roles & Tasks in the Development Team - Product Owner, Scrum Master and developers
- Experience & Challenges of the Company Badin Soft in Scrum Application in the Development Team
- Scrum Master Certificate - certification process and available education for continuous improvement
- Workshop - Team Rope & Balloon Game
